Case No. 13-53846

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

NOW COMES, Creditor Dennis Taubitz in pro per and for his Motion for Reconsideration states as follows:

1. Creditor filed a Motion to Participate in the Eligibility Trial.
2. Creditor also filed a Motion to Participate in the closed door negotiations and mediation that this Court ordered.
3. Creditor also filed a Motion to Participate in the Confirmation Hearing.
4. This Court, in disregard to Creditor's due process rights, has denied without merit all of Creditor's attempts to participate in the Court's proceedings and in the negotiations and mediations.
5. This Court in its Order dated August 20, 2014, improperly denied Creditor's Motion to Participate in the Confirmation Hearing. The Court, in error, stated: "Likewise, the Motion does not identify the subject matter of the proposed testimony as the Court's Order Regarding Participation".
6. Creditor, however, attached his Witness List to his Motion to Participate in the Confirmation Hearing. Creditor specifically identified in his Witness List the subject matter of the testimony of each of the witnesses. Creditor specifically stated that: "The testimony of each witness will concern the validity of Debtor's Annuity Savings Recoupment and the confirmability of the Plan of Adjustment.) Creditor clearly identified the subject matter of the proposed testimony of the witnesses as the Court ordered.

7. As to the Court's concern that the "Creditor has no idea how long the cross examination of the witnesses will take". Creditor indeed does not have an estimate of how long the Debtor's Counsel will take in its cross examination of the witnesses. Creditor does not control the timeframe of Debtor Counsel's cross examination. Creditor therefore cannot provide the overall time that the testimony of each witness will take.
8. Creditor, however, can state that he expects the direct examination to be approximately one (1) hour for each witness, except for the first three (3) listed witnesses which Creditor expects the direct examination to take one (1) day.
9. Again, as Creditor cannot predict how long the cross examination and redirect examination of the witnesses will take, Creditor cannot provide the total time that each witness will testify, but can only provide the estimated time for the direct examination of each witness.
10. Creditor submits that as a party, he has an absolute right to participate in any trial or hearing regarding this Bankruptcy case.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, this Creditor Dennis Taubitz respectfully prays that this Honorable Court grant Creditor's Motion for Reconsideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Dennis Taubitz

BRIEF IN SUPPORT

Due process consists of fair notice and a fair hearing before a competent tribunal.

This Creditor submits that a fair hearing is a hearing that one is allowed to fully participate in. Conversely, the Creditor submits that if one is not allowed to participate, the hearing must be deemed unfair.

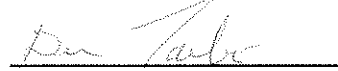

This Creditor submits that his due process rights are being violated and will continue to be violated until he is allowed to participate in the Debtor's trial regarding the Confirmation hearing.

As a party, this Creditor has an absolute right to participate in any trial, hearing or other matter. This Court's naked attempt to deny this right is a violation of all legal principles and is a clear demonstration undue justice.

Clearly, the Court's rationale for denying the Motion to Participate is improper. This Creditor clearly specified the nature of the testimony of the witnesses. Further, Creditor has specified the length of direct examination; and Creditor cannot foresee the total length of the witnesses' testimony as there is no way of knowing the length of cross examination.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, this Creditor Dennis Taubitz respectfully prays that this Honorable Court grant Creditor's Motion for Reconsideration.

Respectfully submitted,
